JAP EXPLOIT FAILED

Attempt to Repeat Torpedo Boat Deed at Wei-Hai-Wei.

DISASTROUS FAILURE

FOUR DESTROYERS CREPT INTO PORT ARTHUR HARBOR.

Only One Escaped the Russian Fire—Admiration for Reckless Bravery of the Japanese.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 6.—1:30 p.m.—A few nights ago Admiral Togo attempted to repeat the Japanese exploit with torpedo boats at Wei-Hai-Wei, during the China-Japanese war, by sending torpedo boat destroyers into the harbor of Port Arthur for the purpose of sinking ships at their anchorage, but the attempt ended in disastrous failure.

Four torpedo boat destroyers succeeded in creeping into the harbor, which was not protected by booms, but only one escaped. Two were sunk by the shore batteries and one was crippled.

The reckless bravery of the Japanese in going to almost certain destruction excites nothing but admiration here. The channel at Port Arthur is so tortuous and strewn with wrecks without that evidently it was regarded as unnecessary to use a boom. On account of the difficulty of getting into the harbor the feat is considered in naval circles to be fully as daring as that of the Japanese at Wei-Hai-Wei.
